The mixer driver pool grew 8.5% between January 1-December 31, 2015.

Of those mixer drivers who were hired in 2015, 49% quit. The highest percentage left between one and three months.

61% of producers moved drivers internally to another full time job in 2015.

The RMC industry’s national turnover rate was 20% in 2014; it rose to 32% in 2015.

Of those drivers who quit, 3% more went to local short haul carriers than another producer.

76% of respondents released mixer drivers because of poor attitude or lack of work ethic.

Of those drivers who quit, 3% more went to local short haul carriers than another producer.

71% of respondents reported their most successful recruitment method was “employee referral” in 2015. #2 was social media.

51% of respondents reported they lost business due to a driver shortage.

30% of the driver population in 2014 + 2015 were new hires.

2017 survey will be available April-May, 2017. Accessible through NRMCA’s website.