74% of producers provide a peer mentor, down 11% from 2016.

46% of producers moved drivers internally to another full-time job, down 15% from the previous 2 years.

76% of producers had driver openings on December 31, 2017, up 5% from 2016.

The RMC industry’s national turnover rate was 29%, up 3% from 2016.

67% of respondents released mixer drivers because of poor attitude or lack of work ethic.

36% of producers do not track where their drivers go after they quit.

For the past 4 years, the #1 place drivers go if they quit is a non-RMC short haul driving job.

74% of respondents reported their most successful recruitment method was “employee referral” - #2 was social media.

74% of respondents reported they lost business due to a driver shortage, up 12% from 2016.

46% of producers moved drivers internally to another full-time job, down 15% from the previous 2 years.